

Terms and conditions for ZCL Timer

Last Updated: 09/01/2024 [dd/mm/yyyy]

User Agreement:

Basic Rules and Conditions:

Users must use the app for its intended purpose, which is timing Rubik's Cube resolutions.

Agreement Indication:

Users indicate their agreement by using the app.

Account Creation (User Registration):

User registration is not required to use the app, but it is suggested for saving times in the cloud.

Registration Information:

During registration, users need to provide name, surname, email, and password (if using credentials). No password is required if using Google or Apple login.

User Data and Privacy:

User data is handled in accordance with our privacy policy, available at privacy.zcltimer.com.

Restrictions:

There are no restrictions on who can use the app.

App Features:

The app tracks solving times, provides graphics, and statistics using device data or accessing public and open-source data from WCA (World Cube Association).

Intellectual Property:

Intellectual property, including app content and code, is protected in accordance with applicable laws.

Change of terms and condition:

Users can check if the terms are changed at terms.zcltimer.com

Governing Law:

The terms and conditions are governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).